

Anti-corruption Policy

SCG PACKAGING PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED

SCG Packaging Public Company Limited (“the Company”) conducts its business with fairness based on a philosophy that the Company shall demonstrate a keen sense to social responsibility and the best interests of its stakeholders in alignment with the principle of Corporate Governance, SCG Packaging’s Code of Conduct, and stakeholder engagement policy and guidelines. Since 2020, the Company has become a member of Thailand’s Private Sector Collective Action Coalition Against Corruption (CAC).

In order to provide clear guidelines for business operations and develop the Company into an organization of sustainability, the Company has reviewed the previously issued Anti-corruption Policy to ensure that the Company has in place a policy that defines responsibilities, guidelines, and appropriate operational requirements to prevent corruption in all of the Company’s business activities and that all decisions on business operations potentially incurring risk of corruption are considered and executed with due circumspection.

Definitions

Corruption refers to any types of bribery, whether in the form of offering, promising to give, giving, agreeing to give, requesting, or accepting money, assets, or other benefits to or from a government officer, a government agency, a private organization, or a responsible person, either directly or indirectly, in order that such person acts or refrains from acting in the exercise of his or her duties in order to obtain or retain business or recommend a specific business to the company, or obtain or retain other undue business advantages, except where such act is allowed by laws, rules, notifications, regulations, or local customs.

The Company’s personnel refer to directors, executives, and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries.

A subsidiary refers to a subsidiary company in accordance with the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

Gift and hospitality refer to asset, services, or other benefits.

Facilitation payment refers to a small amount of money paid informally to government officials to ensure that they perform their duties or expedite routine administrative procedures that do not require the discretion of government officials and such procedures fall within the scope of the official’s authorities and duties of which entities or individuals are entitled to receive services in accordance with the laws.

Donation and sponsorship refer to giving and receiving of assets, services, or other benefits to or from individuals or entities for charitable purpose or public benefit, without expecting any return or commercial benefits from such activities, including supporting individuals or entities, which align with the Company’s policies and procedural guidelines.

Government official refers to any individual currently or formerly serving as a public sector officer, political figure, or advisor to a government agency.

Employment of government officials or Revolving Door refers to the movement of individuals from the public sector to employment in the private sector, which may give rise to corruption risks in terms of conflicts of interest for individuals who have roles in both sectors. Such situations may result in government officials performing their supervisory duties without impartiality.

Political contribution refers to giving of assets, services, or other benefits to assist, support, or otherwise provide advantages to political parties, politicians, individuals holding political office, or political activities, whether directly or indirectly.

Conflicts of interest refer to a situation where an individual, in performing their duties in a position they are responsible for, has a situation that impacts the overall interests and/or those of the Company. This situation may lead to a lack of impartiality and transparency in decision-making of such individual.
